"to be absent from the body and present with the Lord"

On Sunday mornings we are listening to Jesus' teaching in the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus finishes the sermon in Matthew ch7 with these words...

'Not everyone who says to me, "Lord, Lord," will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.'

'... Everyone who hears these words of mind and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock.'

Jesus does not just want us to hear his teaching, he wants us to respond to it with obedience. As we reach the end of Matthew 5 we each need to take the time to think about how we need to respond to what Jesus has said.

Take the time this week to re-read Matthew 5 where Jesus has filled-full God's standards for us. Then spend some time...

- ... Confessing to God the ways you are not living up to his standards.
- ... Thanking God for the perfect obedience and righteousness of Jesus that he gives us by faith.
- ... Asking for the Holy Spirit's help make real changes in areas of your life where you know that things need to change.
