

Full-time Women's Worker

Person Specification

- They must be a woman with a clear evangelical commitment
- They must be committed to the disciplines of personal prayer and Bible study.
- They must be able to teach the Bible clearly and faithfully to women whether that is done formally or informally.
- They must hold to a complementarian position in regard to the roles of men and women both in the home and in the church.
- They will have a clear heart for the gospel and a desire to see people come to faith and then mature in their faith.
- They should have some understanding in biblical counselling and be willing to use the Christian Counselling Education Foundation (CCEF) approach to biblical counselling.
- They should be able to train other women in practical pastoral care and mobilise them for ministry in the church.
- They will need to be good at building relationships with new people and helping them to integrate into the life of the church and grow in their new faith.
- They will need to be someone who is approachable and trustworthy.